LOS ANGELES TALE

There were two beautiful trees in forest in Alps. Many red apples were on one tree and there were no apples on the other. The old tree that had red apples were in scarves, and the tree that had no apples were very good, young and without scarves. An old man was sitting under these trees. He smoked his pipe and was very tired. He listened to the magic singing of birds and looked at the green trees. All these made him sleep. This time a little boy came to him and woke the old man. - Sorry father to awake you, but I can't find the answer to the question. May be you know, you lived a long life to know it.

- I had a rest after a long way from the lands beyond the horizon but if it really important for you too much, I would do my best for you, kid.

- How could it be so that one-apple tree is full of red apples but look at this one - it has no apples at all!

A man made a deep breath of puzzle and knocked the pipe against the stone.

- Look at my scarved hands, kid. They are full of scarves. Full tree is scarved too but it has apples. It is only wind who gives apples or gives scarves...

THE BLIND MAN AND THE GREAT ARTIST

Every day in one of the streets of Vienna you could see a blind man playing the violin. His dog sat near him with a cap in his mouth. People, who were passing them, dropped coins into the cap. So one day, when the weather was very cold, the man was playing for a long time, but nobody wanted to give him anything. The poor man thought that he would have to go to bed without supper. He was so tired and so weak that he stopped playing. At that moment a young man came up to him and asked him why he had stopped playing. The blind man said he had played for two hours but nobody had given him anything. "Give me your violin. I will help you", said the man. And with these words he began to play. He played so well that people began to gather and soon there was a big crowd. Everybody wanted to listen to the fine music and to thank the young man for the pleasure. Soon the cap was full of money. "I don't know how to thank you", said the blind man. "Who are you?" "I am Paganini", was the answer.

FROM POLICE REPORT:

"It was about eleven o'clock p.m. I was sitting in a cafe on Queen Street when I noticed two boys in their late teens, in a doorway opposite. They were watching a woman a few meters away from them. She was waiting in the street with her handbag under her arm and then, after a minute, she looked at her watch. While she was standing there one of the boys snatched her bag. She turned quickly and shouted at him but he ran off down the street to the nearest lane. While the thief was running away, the other boy tried to hinder in obscure way the victim to pursuit the running teenager and started to walk away from the shop."

I bought a bit of baking powder and baked a batch of biscuits. I brought a big basket of biscuits back to the bakery and baked a basket of big biscuits. Then I took the big basket of biscuits and the basket of big biscuits and mixed the big biscuits with the basket of biscuits that was next to the big basket and put a bunch of biscuits from the basket into a biscuit mixer and brought the basket of biscuits and the box of mixed biscuits and the biscuit mixer to the bakery and opened a tin of sardines.

If Dr. Seuss Were a Technical Writer.....
Here's an easy game to play.
Here's an easy thing to say:
If a packet hits a pocket on a socket on a port,
And the bus is interrupted as a very last resort,
And the address of the memory makes your floppy disk abort,
Then the socket packet pocket has an error to report!
If your cursor finds a menu item followed by a dash,

And the double-clicking icon puts your window in the trash,
And your data is corrupted 'cause the index doesn't hash,
then your situation's hopeless, and your system's gonna crash!
You can't say this? What a shame, sir!
We'll find you another game, sir.
If the label on the cable on the table at your house,
Says the network is connected to the button on your mouse,
But your packets want to tunnel on another protocol,
That's repeatedly rejected by the printer down the hall,
And your screen is all distorted by the side effects of gauss,
So your icons in the window are as wavy as a souse,
Then you may as well reboot and go out with a bang,
'Cause as sure as I'm a poet, the sucker's gonna hang!
When the copy of your floppy's getting sloppy on the disk,
And the microcode instructions cause unnecessary risk,
Then you have to flash your memory and you'll want to ram your rom.
Quickly turn off the computer and be sure to tell your mom!

I bought a bit of baking powder and baked a batch of biscuits. I brought a big basket of biscuits back to the bakery and baked a basket of big biscuits. Then I took the big basket of biscuits and the basket of big biscuits and mixed the big biscuits with the basket of biscuits that was next to the big basket and put a bunch of biscuits from the basket into a biscuit mixer and brought the basket of biscuits and the box of mixed biscuits and the biscuit mixer to the bakery and opened a tin of sardines.
Said to be a diction test for would-be radio announcers: To be read clearly, without mistakes, in less than 20 seconds (from Coronet Magazine, August 1948).

I'm a mother pheasant plucker.
I pluck mother pheasants.
I'm the pleasantest mother pheasant plucker.
That ever plucked a mother pheasant.
Actually, ...
I'm Not the pheasant plucker,
I'm the pheasant plucker's son.
But I'll stay and pluck the pheasants
Till the pheasant plucking 's done!
